FACING THE PROBLEM

When you buy sunglasses do you seek to protect your eyes or do you seek further aggravation? If the former, why pay a negligible 8s. for the privilege of wearing moulded, coloured glass when you can buy a pair of optically ground sunglasses for 4s.—

FEVERISH ACTIVITY IN EUROPE AS NEW BALANCE OF POWER IS SOUGHT: NERVES ON EDGE: IMPERIAL DEFENCE COUNCIL CALLED: KING IN CAPITAL

Frontier Clash In Poland

DANZIG TENSE

WARSAW, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—A frontier incident is reported by Polish sources from Czenstochow, where it is stated that three German soldiers crossed the frontier seeking German deserters. A Polish guard ordered the Germans back and fired when they refused. It is believed that one German was wounded.

NOT TO-DAY

BERLIN, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—Rumours circulating abroad that German troops have been ordered to occupy Danzig and the Polish Corridor at dawn to-morrow are discredited here where "nothing is known in responsible circles" of any such plans.

SABRE-RATTLING

BRATISLAVA, August 23 (Reuter)—A big anti-Polish demonstration was held here last night.

The Slovak Minister of Propaganda and the Nazi leader made speeches demanding the return of territory to Slovakia which was taken by Poland after the World War.

They added that Slovakia would stand side by side with Germany.

FOOD SHORTAGE

DANZIG, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—It is reported that there is a shortage of food in the city, for which the Danzig authorities blame Poland, who is alleged to have blocked the entry of foodstuffs into the city.

The Polish authorities declare that there has been no refusal to send supplies and that if there is any shortage of food, this is due to the increase in the population resulting from the influx of large numbers of troops.

Governor Reprobates Political Crime

The following official communique was issued yesterday by the Hon. Mr. R. A. C. North, acting Colonial Secretary:

I am directed by the Governor to say that His Excellency reprobates to the utmost the crime of political assassination.

Such crimes are a gross abuse of the hospitality which this Colony has always afforded to persons of all races whatever their political opinions.

His Excellency trusts that the more responsible members of the community will use all their influence to prevent the commission of such crimes. In his own part, he and his officers will leave no stone unturned to discover and punish such criminals.

CRISIS FLASHES

Henderson Explains To Hitler

BERLIN, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—The British Ambassador, Sir Neville Henderson, flew to Salzburg this morning and proceeded immediately to Berchtesgaden to see Herr Hitler.

He is understood to have been sent by the British Government with a statement addressed to Herr Hitler reiterating the communique issued last night after the meeting of the Cabinet.

Sir Neville Henderson will no doubt explain to the Reichsfuehrer the summoning of Parliament to-morrow, at which a bill will be tabled giving the Government powers to act without summoning Parliament. Meanwhile, more men have been called to the colours.

Moves Of Delegates In Moscow

MOSCOW, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—It is thought possible the members of the British and French military missions met high Government officials during their visit to the Kremlin yesterday.

It is believed that on this occasion, the missions were accompanied by the Soviet delegation.

PRIVATE TALKS

MOSCOW, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—It was revealed to-day that the British and French missions met for consultation without the Soviet delegation.

Momentous Meetings In London BRITAIN FIRM

LONDON, AUG. 23 (REUTER)—THE COMMITTEE FOR IMPERIAL DEFENCE MET THIS MORNING.

There were a number of visitors at No. 10 Downing Street, including the British Ambassador—Designate to the United States, the Marquess of Lothian, the Liberal leader Sir Archibald Sinclair, and the Private Secretary to His Majesty.

The British Ambassador to France, who is at present on leave, also saw the Prime Minister.

PRESS COMMENT

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—Calm reflection of Britain's pledge to Poland in the face of Germany's startling tactical manoeuvre feature the press headlines but at the same time much space is devoted to attempts to assess the exact implication of the Reich Foreign Minister, Herr Von Ribbentrop's journey to Moscow.

"The Times" points out that the Soviet has signed non-aggression pacts with other countries and adds that whether the new one does or does not neutralise Russian action in the event of German aggression is not yet clear.

The "Daily Telegraph" declared that Britain is now forced to a point where she cannot serve but disserve peace by giving way and further emphasizes that it is essential for the sake of Europe, as well as the British Empire, that Britain stand firm.

Australian Co-Operation Is Pledged

CANBERRA, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—"Britain will have our fullest co-operation in her magnificent efforts to avoid insanity and injustice," declared the Prime Minister, Mr. R. G. Menzies, in a statement to the press.

The Prime Minister added that it was a cardinal error for any other country to assume there was any disunity among the British peoples.

The "Melbourne Herald" says that a possible effect of the German-Soviet Pact on Japan's interests in Australia may result in releasing more Australian resources to aid Britain.

Soft Words In Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—Asked at the press conference this evening about the rumours that the Japanese are contemplating a blockade of the foreign areas of Shanghai, the Japanese army spokesman replied: "There is no likelihood of any immediate steps similar to those taken at Tientsin."

He said that the Japanese felt gravely concerned over the Kinko incident, but he did not know exactly what measure would be taken.

"Something must be done by the Japanese military authorities," he declared.

M. STALIN

PACT IS BLOW AT JAPAN

"GUARDIAN" ON FAR EASTERN IMPLICATIONS

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—If Europe was surprised by the announcement of the German-Russian Non-Aggression Pact, Japan was astounded, writes the "Manchester Guardian."

It is possible that the agreement may prove of little value, and that if it does not benefit Germany it will also not harm Japan—but even if this is true, the Japanese Government will find it difficult to put much trust in German support in the future.

It is clear that Germany is willing to sacrifice Japan's interests in the Far East if she can do so to her own advantage in Europe, and that the Japanese will certainly think twice before committing themselves to support German ambitions on the other side of the world.

"At the present time," concludes the "Guardian," "Japan must be regarding Germany in much the same light as that in which we regard Russia."

HALF-HOUR TALK

BERLIN, Aug. 23 (Reuter)—The Japanese Ambassador had a half-hour conversation with the German Foreign Minister, Herr Von Ribbentrop, before the latter's departure for Moscow last night on the implications of the projected German-Soviet Pact and the future of the Anti-Comintern Pact.

LAWN BOWLS NOTES:

SEASON EXPECTED TO STRETCH INTO SEPTEMBER

OPEN SINGLES MATCHES DISAPPOINT: PROSPECTS FOR THE WEEK-END

(By Jack Hy)

Last Saturday being wet, the Lawn Bowls programme had perforce to be cancelled. Though heavy rain fell in the morning, it was thought that the bowls matches arranged for that day could be played off as by afternoon the greens were quite dry. But another heavy downpour which fell an hour before the matches were due to start left the greens (most of which were actually under water) too sodden to be played on.

According to the fixture-card, this week's matches should mark the close of the lawn bowls' season, but actually there are clubs in the First and Third Divisions with as many as six (seven in the case of the Kowloon Bowling Green) matches unplayed.

This means that the season will stretch right into September or even the beginning of October if there are more postponements owing to rain. In that case bowls will undoubtedly clash with cricket which will get under way about then.

OPEN SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP

The fairly large crowd which turned up at the Civil Service to see the two matches in the fourth round of the Singles Championship on Monday must have been disappointed if they had expected to see evenly fought games. In both cases the matches were one-sided, both A. R. Dallah and M. R. Abbas of the Indian R.C. finding it surprisingly easy to dispose of C. M. Silva and A. E. Coates respectively.

It was not that the standard of bowls was poor. Indeed the two winners played bowls of a high order. It had to be to win in such easy fashion against bowlers like Alfred Coates and Charlie Silva.

But from the spectators' point of view both games were disappointing as little opposition was given the winners, Dallah winning his match on the 15th head by 21-7 and Abbas on the 19th by 21-12 after leading by 20-5 on the 15th.

Surprise Collapse

The collapse of Coates and Silva was incomprehensible.

The former who is a former singles champion of the Colony has of late been playing very well, so well in fact that from lead he has been made number three to B. W. Bradbury. Silva last year went far in the Singles Championship and had credit of bagging the scalps of two former champions in U. M. Omar and R. Duncan.

Dallah was playing very well and was leading Silva by 12-0 before the latter could score. On the 14th head Dallah had 18 to his opponent's 7, and on the next, which proved to be the last, he scored three to clinch the game. Silva was playing below form and was short most of the afternoon.

Coates' Mistake

Where Coates fell down on the other hand, was in being through—especially on the medium heads. Abbas struck form right from the word go and monopolised the scoring up to the fifth head when he was leading by 8-0 before Coates could score. Abbas kept on piling up the score and had 20 shots to Coates' 5 on the 15th head.

Then Coates made a vain attempt to turn the scales in his favour by scoring a four, a single and a two to reduce the lead to 20-12. On the 19th head he was lying a couple, but Abbas played a beautiful follow-through shot to take the game.

Minu Wins Again

A. R. Minu recorded yet another victory in the name of the Indian R.C. when he beat A. M. Omar in a closely fought match at Recreio by 21-19. This match went to 25 heads before the issue was decided.

Just how evenly matched these two players were can be judged by the fact that in the course of the game each took the lead in turn.

On the 22nd head, when the score stood at 18-11, Omar took a three to lead by 19-16. But for the rest of the game he failed to increase his score and allowed Fatty Minu to win by 21-19.

A Good Game

BASEBALL NOTES:

Mindanao Become Runner-Up For Championship

(BY "R. O. Y.")

The Chinese Baseballers subsided into a tie with South China in third position in the League standings when they were unable to field a team on Sunday and consequently forfeited the points to Mindanao, who thus, become runner-up for the championship.

Although no league matches were played, local fans received good entertainment from the two friendly games that were staged on Sunday morning.

In the opener, the Chinese Baseballers, with the help of Bill Hong Sling, George Wu, Ali, and Y. T. Chan, accounted for the Mindanao gang by 9 runs to 8 after being out 10 to 7.

For six innings the Chinese gave a fielding display that augurs well for their International Series chances, although they did have considerably difficulty in connecting with the speedy deliveries of Tony Mockeviculis who made his local debut on the mound for Mindanao.

A Newcomer

Keplinger was another newcomer, to the sailor ranks, to impress; Cecil Douglas made a comeback with the hickory to garner two bingles in three times up. "Paintpot" Thomas swiped one up on the right field bank and indulged in some solid blocking at the plate.

For the winners, Wally Ching had the opposing hitters swinging at his slow ball and fanned six, including the mighty Douglas. Nip Lum pulled off his usual base pilfering to score twice, but the outstanding player, in my opinion, was C. S. Chung who dragged down a number of long drives at centre field and capped his fly shagging with a brace of bingles and a couple of stolen bases.

Practice Match

Representatives of China and Britain for the forthcoming International Series, staged a practice match in the nightcap, but as a number of candidates was missing, neither squad lined up as they are expected to in the tournament.

China chalked up an unconvincing 11-7 victory, in this loosely played game, after committing four errors, of which three were debited to Tommy Chan playing at the Windy Alley. Needless to say, Tommy will not be seen in this position when China meets America next Sunday. Nip Lum had the dubious distinction of chalking up the other error with a wild peg to first.

The other seven members of the squad played errorless ball with Bill Hong Sling, Y. T. Chan and Wally Ching displaying brilliant form.

Winners Outfit

The winners were again outfit, this time 8 to 7; Bill Hong Sling was the best batter with two singles and three tallies. The British team were very unsteady in the field and miscued 10 times, to break the heart of Dave Leonard who hurled winning ball despite the poor support.

Three members of the hoyas engineers were included in the lineup: Samfield and Foley in the outfield and Shaw at the initial sack

The quickest way to get the best whisky.

The last named displayed an excellent batting eye by connecting for a single and a double.

Triple Baggers

Dave and Terry Leonard both slashed rousing triple baggers to left field fence. Other brothers to appear were Stan and Norman who chalked up a hit apiece and were errorless in the field. Dave was the only member of the UK to commit a bobble, but he handled exactly as many fielding chances as the others did together.

Sammy Izatt had an unhappy time at the Hot Corner, but batted well without any luck. One drive, in particular, would have been safe nine times in ten, but Li playing in close took a shoestring catch off a sizzling line drive that normally would have landed yards short of the leftfielder.

Dave Leonard will probably make drastic positional changes when Britain meet Portugal on Saturday afternoon. They'll be entirely necessary.

To celebrate the 82nd Anniversary of the Hongkong Daily Press, the oldest morning paper in Hongkong, which was established on October 1, 1857, a special supplement is to be issued. This will be printed on good quality paper and will be profusely illustrated, and it will give the best presentation of Hongkong yet attempted.

As the Hongkong Daily Press's 82nd Anniversary falls ten days before October 10, the Double-Tenth, which is China's National Day, it is proposed to commemorate the occasion in the same special supplement which will, therefore, also give a comprehensive account of the progress of the Republic of China as made under the guidance of the Kuo Min Tang.

It being the wish of the publishers of the Hongkong Daily Press to emphasize Sino-British friendship as the theme of the special supplement, a cover design clearly presenting this theme is being sought. ## S'hai Shooting Sequel

POSITION STILL VERY GRAVE

CHUNGKING, Aug. 23 (Central).—Gravity still prevails in Shanghai as a result of the shooting between police of the International Settlement and the bogus Greater Shanghai Municipal Government, states a Shanghai dispatch.

Besides telling Fu Siao-en, the puppet Mayor, to lodge a strong protest with the Shanghai Municipal Council over the incident, the Japanese are alleged to have instructed newspapers under their control to intensify propaganda against Great Britain and the existence of foreign concessions in China.

The Shanghai Municipal Council is maintaining a calm attitude toward the situation.

MYSTERY FILM AT THE KING'S TO-DAY

A mystery to bewildering that it has to be solved twice, is the situation facing the Roving Reporters, Michael Whalen and Chick Chandler, in their latest escapade, "While New York Sleeps," 20th Century-Fox's thriller of murder at midnight in Manhattan, due to open to-day at the King's Theatre.

From all reports it would seem that Messrs. Whalen and Chandler, aided by lovely Jean Rogers, who scored in "Time Out For Murder," have really got themselves into a jam this time. They've caught the killer before the killing, printed the story before it happens and then are embarrassed no end to find—the same man murdered again!

The cast of "While New York Sleeps" also includes Robert Kellard, Joan Woodbury, Harold Huber and Marc Lawrence. E. Bruce Humberstone directed from a screen play by Frances Hyland and Albert Ray. The original story was written by Frank Fenton and Lynn Root. The film introduces two new song hits, "Till Never Change," by Sidney Clare and Arthur Johnston, and "Ain't He Good Looking," by Clare. Dances were staged by Nicholas Castle and Geneva Sawyer.

"THE SUN NEVER SETS:" REVIEW OF UNIVERSAL'S NEW PRODUCTION

"THE SUN NEVER SETS," IS RATED A FAST-MOVING AND ENTERTAINING PICTURE ADMIRABLY PLAYED BY A CAPABLE CAST.

This is what a reviewer says of this film:

"In recent years Hollywood has ground out British Empire epics—'Lives of a Bengal Lancer,' 'The Charge of the Light Brigade,' 'Gunga Din,' and others—that have made the film capital Britain's best salesman of unconscious propaganda.

With an eye to the visit of the King and Queen to American soil, Universal released another. The 'Sun Never Sets.' But despite the publicity link, the picture is less an empire build-up than a bizarre mystery thriller as is E. Phillips Oppenheim.

THE COLONIAL SERVICE

The story depicts the armed services for a change and dramatizes the life of a family of career men in the British colonial service—a family whose honour is put at stake by rebellion of the youngest member, John Randolph (Douglas Fairbanks Jr.), against entering the service. Hugo Zurof (Lionel Atwill), munitions baron disguised as a scientist, has discovered a mine of valuable war metals on Africa's Gold Coast and plans to foment a world conflict. Broadcasting propaganda from a secret radio station in the mine, he has Whitehall officials tearing their hair.

"They send Olive Randolph (Basil Rathbone), district commissioner now home on leave, back to trap him. The commissioner takes along his wife (Barbara O'Neil) and the young brother, John. Later, irked by the commissioner's sense-of-duty obsession in leaving his wife when she is to have a baby, John easily falls for a ruse by the munitions magnate whereby Olive abandons an empire mission and falls into disgrace.

TRADITIONS TRIUMPH

"But in the end, thanks to a spectacular, nick-of-time bombing of the radio station by a fleet of airplanes in which the villains are killed outright by concussion (they are found sitting upright, trancelike), the traditions of the service triumph.

"Despite excessive emphasis on the idea of duty to empire and considerable overacting by both Fairbanks and Rathbone, Rowland V. Lee has produced a fast-moving and entertaining picture. Miss O'Neil plays her most important role to date with much distinction; in fact, the entire supporting cast—Virginia Field, Melville Cooper, C. Aubrey Smith, Mary Forbes, and others—gives an admirable performance."

ALL LABOUR TO BE WITHDRAWN

BRITISH RAILWAY WAGES DISPUTE

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—The Executive Committee of the Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen have decided to withdraw all labour on four main-line group railways on, and from, midnight on Aug. 26.

The Society and the National Union of Railwaymen are claiming a minimum pay of 50 shillings weekly against the recent increase of the minimum to 45 shillings, beyond which the railway companies maintain that their resources do not allow them to go.

NO STRIKE

The National Union of Railwaymen, at a delegates Conference, decided to resubmit their claim for 50 shillings minimum to the National Tribunal.

Though the Society has only 55,000 members, against the Union's 366,000, they are the key-men and action by them would practically bring the railroads to a standstill.

JAPANESE WARSHIPS OFF TAMCHOW

HOME OF R. L. S. TO BE SOLD

Robert Louis Stevenson's family home in Edinburgh is shortly to come into the market. It is 17 Heriot Row, a stone-built, Georgian-style house which, until his death recently, was the property of Lord Kinross.

The house in Howard Place where R. L. S. was born is now a Stevenson museum. But the greater part of his childhood and early youth was spent at 17 Heriot Row. His "Child's Garden of Verses" was inspired in its nurseries.

"For we are very lucky With a lamp before our door. And leerie steps to light it As he lights so many more." The lamp-standard in question is still there, attached to the area railings, but it is no longer in use. It has been supplanted by a more recent gas lamp-post, which American tourists continually mistake for the original.

There is still living, in Edinburgh, a retired postman who delivered letters at 17 Heriot Row in Stevenson's time.

He is Mr. Robert F. Buchanan, who remembers meeting R. L. S. on the doorstep when he was at home during his father's last illness in 1887.

Mr. Buchanan recalls the great man's velvet jacket and especially his fine, strong voice.

A MacDonald Play

LONDON, Aug. 10 (By Air Mail).—Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's sons and daughters are considering whether they object to a play called "Prime Minister." The play is based on the life of their father, and Mr. Jack de Leon wants to put it on in London in the autumn.

The play has been written by a Gray's Inn solicitor, Mr. Harold Rubinstein, who has been a playwright by hobby since his first success "Consequences," in 1913.

He was sitting in the 1917 Club on the day in 1922 when Mr. MacDonald was elected to the leadership of the Opposition. In the middle of the excitement he turned to Miss Rose Rosenberg, Mr. MacDonald's secretary, to say what a grand scene in a play it would make.

"If you write it," replied Miss Rosenberg, "put me in." When he wrote it, he did.

FOR FIFTEEN YEARS He started on the play soon afterwards and has worked at it for fifteen years. From 1931 to 1937 he rewrote the last scene every time Mr. MacDonald figured in a political crisis.

With Mr. MacDonald's death at sea it was rewritten for the last time.

'Man In Iron Lung' Weds Former Sweetheart

"The man in the iron lung," 29-year-old Fred B. Snite, was married to his former sweetheart, Miss Teresa Larkin, aged 25, a few hours after obtaining a special licence, at the home of his father, the Chicago millionaire banker.

Miss Larkin was his friend before he was afflicted with infantile paralysis three years ago.

Snite is confident that he will ultimately recover. He is now able to breathe for one hour each day outside the iron lung. Part of the time he is allowed to sit up.

His courage has astonished doctors and nurses. Recently he visited Lourdes, where he made a pilgrimage to the Grotto of Miracles.

COUPLE HANG FIVE HOURS ON PARACHUTE

A society polo player and his wife were rescued at New York World's Fair recently after spending five perilous hours dangling from a parachute 1000ft. in the air. Tens of thousands of thrill-seekers watched the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cornelius Rathbone as, strapped to a small plank below the parachute, they were billowed by the breeze.

They were trapped at 11.30 at night, and it was not until 4.30 the next day amid loud cheers from the crowd, that the frantic rescue efforts succeeded.

It was New York's greatest drama since John Wardle sat on a skyscraper's edge in Manhattan and dived to death. The parachute jump is the amusement sensation of the fair, and consists of eleven parachutes which are pulled by cables to the top of a 250ft. tower and then released.

Mr. and Mrs. Rathbone were being pulled upwards in the parachute when the cables stalled. New York's highest fire ladder was run up, but it was 15ft. too short. "Cheer up, you'll soon be saved," yelled the crowd, who tried to throw cakes and "hot dogs" to the couple until stopped by the police.

They represent a face value of $500,000 and were expected to be circulated through the Shanghai Office of the Central Bank of China this week. The Shing Sheng News Agency had already obtained some sample notes. More such notes are being printed in Hongkong.

SECOND GREATEST POSSIBLE SENTENCE PASSED ON ARMED ROBBER BY CHIEF JUSTICE AT SESSIONS.

Imprisonment With Hard Labour For Term Of Man's Natural Life

COURAGEOUS CONDUCT OF POLICE COMMENDED BY BENCH

The greatest possible sentence in law, second only to the death penalty, and one that had not been passed in Hongkong courts of justice for many years, that of imprisonment with hard labour for the term of a man's natural life, was imposed by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday, on Chan Sang, 32-year-old native of Shatukok, who was unanimously found guilty on charges arising from a daring armed robbery committed on May 30 on the Wing Cheong Goldsmith Shop, No. 449, Shanghai Street, Kowloon.

Chairman was one of three men arraigned, one of whom pleaded guilty.

The facts of the case were that five men entered the shop shortly before noon on the day in question and, after holding up the foks, stole jewellery to the value of over $2,000.

The gang was chased through many streets in the Yau-mat and Homuntin districts by an apprentice goldsmith and by a Chinese detective, the latter being wounded in the arm in a gun duel with the robbers.

Shots fired by the men also accidentally killed a woman passer-by in Argyle Street.

COURAGEOUS EFFORTS

The three accused were apprehended on a hill in Homuntin as the result of courageous efforts on the part of a number of European and Chinese police officers.

Chan Sang was banished for life in 1936 and had served terms of imprisonment totalling about eight years on four previous convictions of robbery, possession of arms and other offences.

Asked by the Chief Justice what he had to say before sentence was passed on him, accused pleaded that he committed the crime because of poverty and distress due to disruption in his own country.

Chief Justice: In 1931, your country did not know the shape or size of a bomb!

Accused further said that he would rather go to prison than die at the hands of the Japanese.

"SHOCKING RECORD"

"You have a shocking record for your 32 years of life," said His Lordship. "You have spent, of this span, eight and a half years in prison, and are even now serving sentence of four years."

"Your conduct satisfies me that you are a very dangerous man who should not be at large. I am going to pass on you the greatest sentence in my power in such a case. You will go to prison with hard labour for the term of your natural life."

Accused, who stood his trial in a cool and collected manner, and continually maintained his innocence, was visibly affected when he heard the sentence, and his face paled as he was led below.

LEAST SEVERE SENTENCE

Yau Sang, who pleaded guilty, was sentenced to ten years' hard labour. He had two previous convictions and was still serving another sentence of two years. In 1935, was banished, confidentially for robbery.

His Lordship stated that he was passing on Yau the least severe sentence that he could in the circumstances. In doing so, he took into consideration the fact that prisoner had never attempted to deny his guilt and that no suggestion had been made that he had fired any weapon that resulted in the killing of the innocent woman and the wounding of the detective.

The remaining prisoner, Lai Yam, who bore no criminal record, was sentenced to four years' hard labour. The Chief Justice told accused that, as the latter was a young man and this had been his first offence, he was prepared to give him a chance.

PARTICIPATION DENIED

Chan Sang and Lai Yau both entered the witness-box at the resumption of the case yesterday and denied that they had participated in the robbery. The first man said he was waiting for companions, who were involved in the robbery, when police arrested him.

The other man said that he was walking along the railway line at Homuntin when the sound of shots frightened him, and he was caught as he was running away.

TRIBUTE TO POLICE

The courage and efficient conduct of the police officers concerned in the case was praised by the Chief Justice in glowing words.

"In the course of the taking of evidence in this case," said his Lordship, "I had the opportunity yesterday of congratulating Mr. J. L. Youngs, a witness, on the outstanding courage he displayed in chasing one of the men. I have waited for the conclusion of this case before saying something about the conduct of the police officers concerned."

"The conduct of Detective Constable C108 Tang Ka, in following the armed desperadoes, who had already wounded him, that of Constable C354 Ho Fook and Sgt. Clifford Pope, in similarly attacking a dangerous gang at grave personal risk, and the conduct of Detective Inspector A. E. Carey and Constable C263 Lam Man, in so taking equal great risks in the performance of their duty and to bring the criminals to justice, are matters which I am proud to mention publicly."

DEVOTION TO DUTY

"The public of this Colony are glad to know that it is well served by its police. To all the officers concerned, I tender my personal congratulations for their courage and devotion to duty, and I assure them that I will be at pains to bring the matter to the specific attention of the Commissioner of Police."

The prosecution was in the hands of Mr. J. B. Prentiss, Assistant Crown Solicitor, who was assisted by Detective Inspector Carey. The jury empanelled was:—Messrs. F. Connolly (foreman), Chan Keng, Chung Kin-sen, Yap Pui-san, Tso Yin-kin, Loo Suen-wing and L. B. Chuey.

ALLEGED ASSAULT BY POLICEMAN

A further adjournment was granted by Mr. R. Edwards, at the Central Court yesterday, after further evidence had been heard in the case in which a Chinese Police Constable was summoned for assault.

The defendant, Tse Yam, was alleged to have assaulted Lo Tin, wholesale vegetable dealer, on July 11, at the Kennedy Town Market.

Mr. Hin-shing Lo appeared for the complainant, while Mr. J. M. D'Almada Remedios was for the defence.

The case was adjourned for this morning.

FOUGHT TO SETTLE DEBT PAYMENT

"I have no money. We better fight for it," Hung Kwong, 40, is alleged to have told, Pun Pal, 40, when the latter asked from the former return of a debt of $8. Pun accused Hung of then having, without warning, lunged out with his fist. In the ensuing commotion, Pun was hit with some heavy weapon. He appeared in Court yesterday with his head still bandaged, after being detained two days in hospital.

Hung was bound over by the Magistrate on a sum of $10 keep the peace for one year. He was ordered also to pay compensation of $150 to Pun.

CHILD SOLD FOR $60

TWO CHINESE CONVICTED

Fines of $500, or, in default, six months imprisonment each, with hard labour, were imposed, at the Kowloon Court yesterday, by Mr. E. Himsforth, on Chung Chung, 28, an unlicensed hawk, and Wong Wing, 39, earth cooler, who were convicted of taking part in the transaction of a six-year-old male child, Chung Kwong.

The child, who was sold to the second defendant's uncle for a sum of $60, has not been located. Both defendants pleaded guilty to the charge.

MOTHER'S LETTER

It was related by Inspector E. G. Post, for the prosecution, that the first defendant was known to the child's mother, and, on June 11, at Shun Tak, he received a letter from the child's mother, authorising him to bring the child back to her from relatives in Hongkong.

The first defendant, Chung, met Wong Wing, the second defendant, at the latter's address, when Wong told him that he had an uncle who would pay $70 for a child, as he was childless and longed for a son.

The transaction was carried out on June 21, when it is alleged the uncle paid $60 for the boy.

NOT REGISTERED IN COLONY

Canton Medical Graduate Charged

Lei Sik-pang, a Canton practitioner of western medicine, was summoned before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday for practising medicine for gain while not being registered in the Colony.

Detective Inspector R. L. Whant, who prosecuted, said that acting on information, a Chinese detective went to see the defendant and complained of being ill. Lei examined him and gave him a prescription. Defendant was paid a dollar for the visit.

Prisoners Visited

Following the information, defendant's premises were visited by police and Dr. Valentine. There were no drugs or poisons stored in the house and the premises showed no signs of having been converted into a surgery.

Inspector Whant stated the police did not wish to take a serious view of the case as the defendant had a qualification, but was not permitted to be registered in Hongkong.

Canton Graduate

Mr. C. Y. Kwan, who appeared for the defendant, pleaded guilty. He said that the defendant was a graduate of the Canton Medical College and had been a house surgeon of the college for 14 years. Lei had altogether 45 years' experience in his profession.

The defendant had not openly practised his trade, but only treated friends on introduction. He pleaded that it was only a technical offence.

A fine of $10 was imposed.

AMBULANCE WORK IN EMERGENCY

A meeting of officers of the St. John Ambulance Association and Brigade was held at Brigade Headquarters yesterday, when plans for work in time of emergency were discussed.

Mr. A. Morris, who recently tendered his resignation as Director of Ambulance, a post that he has held for several years, was persuaded to remain indefinitely at the head of the organisation.

NON-ATTENDANCE AT MEDICAL BOARD

Two more European-born British subjects were summoned to attend Court yesterday for the violation of the Compulsory Service Ordinance.

The defendants were John Denman Murphy, residing at Bellevue Hotel, and L. Dunn, residing at No. 278, Mau Tan Wei Road.

The summonses were taken out against them for failing to present themselves to the property authorities for medical examination in connexion with the Compulsory Ordinance.

CAUTIONED

Murphy pleaded guilty to the summons, and was cautioned.

He told the Court that he was then unemployed, and at the time he was ordered to attend the medical, which was at 11 a.m. on August 18, he was seeing someone in the hope of obtaining employment. He added that he attended the medical examination three-quarters of an hour later, but was told that he was too late. He then went up to the Registration Office to seek advice and as a result a summons was taken out against him.

The case against Dunn was adjourned for one week, defendant having failed to appear in Court.

MANAGERS FINED FOR PERMITTING OVERTIME WORK

UNEASINESS

A SECTION of the local community appears to be in a state of jitters following the Japanese occupation of the Chinese side of the border adjoining Hongkong. On the other hand reports of impending negotiations for a non-aggression pact between Soviet Russia and Germany appears a nasty jar for Japan.

NERVOUSNESS at the present juncture is entirely unwarranted and nothing could be more deplored. True, we are passing through critical times and all sorts of rumours are rife but, if we were to believe a fraction of them, we would find ourselves in such a maze that it would be most difficult to find a way out. Japan appears to have her hands so very full with the war in China and border disputes with Soviet Russia that it is hardly likely that she would want to make another enemy by attacking Hongkong. If she did, she would be extremely foolish.

WHETHER a non-aggression pact between Germany and Soviet Russia would have any effect as far as Hongkong is concerned, it is premature to say but it is well to remember that Britain has a non-aggression pact with Berlin and that it was not so long ago that Hitler publicly declared that there would be no wars in the future between the Reich and Britain. Some are inclined to the belief that Japan, finding herself isolated as a result of the pact, may make a desperate move against this Colony. But such a move is hardly likely for the reasons already given.

IN ANY CASE, the local authorities have taken due precautions against local disorders. With a view to controlling the frontier and preventing unnecessary and undue crossing, the railway and highway bridges across the Shumchun River have been removed. At the same time, other precautionary measures have been taken, such as the recommendation, to people living at Fanling to move in to Hongkong and Kowloon; the advice to people whose presence here is not essential to evacuate; and the recommendation that food supplies

BRITISH FAR EASTERN POLICY AS MIRRORED IN THE TOKYO CONFERENCE

BY KUNG LING-KAI

(Special to the "Hongkong Daily Press")

The preliminary agreement reached between Britain and Japan seems to have considerably eased tension at Tientsin, though for a time it was feared that the dispute might lead to a "showdown" by force. Because Britain's interests stand sharply at odds with Japan's ambitions in China, a clash between them has long been expected. While Britain is still insisting on the solution of the Tientsin incident as a local issue, Japan is using her self-manufactured dispute as a lever to further her own designs. Thus the issue involved in this agreement is something more than the interest and prestige of any one nation.

It is because of the wider scope and greater significance this agreement implies that the whole world is following with intense interest the unfolding of this diplomatic drama. But the question in which the Chinese people are most interested is whether this agreement indicates a change of Britain's policy towards the Far East. In order to correctly appraise the real issue involved, let us first have a clear picture of its background.

Britain's policy in the Far East is but a part of her imperial policy. Due to her scattered possessions all over the world and the constant threat to her life line, her policy has been a flexible one. On account of this policy, it is sometimes thought wise not to hesitate to sacrifice some of her interests in certain parts of the world if, in turn, her empire as an entity has more to gain by it. Britain's fundamental policy, however, remains unchanged: the preservation of her imperial interest as a whole. I think it is evident that Japan's avowed objective behind her "New Order in the Far East" aims at nothing less than the monopoly of the whole China market and, to accomplish this, in the opinion of the Japanese militarists, the influence of Western powers must be completely ousted. Partly because her interests conflict with Japan's expansion and partly because the dilatory policy and weak stand she has taken since the Manchurian Incident in 1931, Britain is logically singled out by Japan as an experiment on the effectiveness of the latter's policy of a "New Order in the Far East."

HONOUR AT STAKE

On the other hand, China rightly views her present struggle against Japanese aggression as her national revolution in which her honour and existence are at stake. On the success of her resistance hinges should be stocked for a period of four weeks.

LARGE NUMBERS of people already have started to leave the Colony and yesterday steamers leaving Hongkong for Macao, Shanghai, Canton, Manila and Haiphong were reported to have been packed to capacity. How Chinese returning to Canton will fare upon their return to the City of Rams is a matter of conjecture but with the limited funds at their disposal, they face a serious dilemma.

BUT WHILE it is easy enough for the authorities to advise the evacuation of civilians whose presence here is not essential, it would be pertinent to inquire why this advice was not given several weeks ago. Were the authorities so badly informed that they did not know what was happening around them? How about the clerk making about $30 or $40 a month? Is he and his family to be evacuated? And how? Is anything being done to facilitate the evacuation of civilians to say, Manila? How about the cholera restrictions? Will the authorities undertake to hasten the issue of cholera certificates, which work at the present time takes several days? It would be interesting to know the Government's answers to these queries.

IN THE MEANTIME, our advice to readers is to remain calm and not become panicky though where possible and convenient it is just as well for them to evacuate.

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES TAKEN

The "Hongkong Daily Press" learns from the most authentic sources that the Government of Hongkong has, in view of the many rumours which are at present rife, taken definite precautionary measures to cope with any situation that may arise and to preserve peace and order locally.

With a view to controlling the flood of people coming and going across the border, it has been deemed advisable to remove the railway and highway bridges which cross the Shumchun River.

At the same time, it is being recommended that residents of Fanling should come over to Kowloon and Hongkong.

The Government, also in view of the unnecessary state of jitters which prevails, is advising all persons whose presence in the Colony is unnecessary to evacuate so as to remove a source of worry so far as the authorities are concerned.

Hello &amp; Goodbye

(BY A. W. HYER)

The huge, dark shadows of war clouds in Europe have quickly come to our Colony. The subject of thoughts and conversations during the past forty-eight hours has been war, politics, pacts, and a great deal of guess work as to present and coming situations and conditions.

However, the daily lives of the Colony's residents have been carrying on as usual and travel transports have arrived and departed from Hongkong, though many of their passengers hurry about with intense seriousness.

The semi-typhoon weather of Wednesday morning held up the arrival of Air France's inward weekly service from France, via Hanoi, the plane arriving at Kai Tak at 6.30 p.m. The departure hour for the return service was 7 a.m. this morning.

Air France

LATE ON WEDNESDAY afternoon, 6.30, the Air France plane arrived at Kai Tak from France, via Hanoi, all fourteen accommodations being reserved.

Mr. C. E. von Siedle, the smiling International Harvester Corporation's representative returned from a quick trip to Hanoi. If this gentleman keeps travelling up and down the air line to Indo-China he will need a commuter's ticket!

Returning from business calls was Mr. R. Larcher, who went flying south by Imperial Airways a short time ago.

Mr. A. Naether returned from a business trip in Indo-China and the interior of China. This gentleman will hurry back to his desk in Shanghai where he represents the Foidi Steel Works.

Arriving by the Air France plane from Bangkok were Mr. S. Mirza, Mr. B. Gail and Mr. L. Deldrio. Mr. B. R. Carney was en route from Hanoi; unfortunately, we missed these gentlemen's arrival; therefore, no interviews.

Thursday Departure

THE AIR FRANCE SERVICE left Kai Tak at 7 a.m. this morning for France, via Hanoi.

Travelling to Hanoi was Mr. W. Hewitt, of the Standard Vacuum Oil Co. A business trip takes him away from his desk in the local office.

Several Chinese passengers travelling to Hanoi and London embarked on the Air France service but their names were not divulged.

m.v. Scharnhorst

WEDNESDAY at 4 p.m. the m.v. Scharnhorst had entered the harbour from Shanghai and was alongside pier one.

Mr. Lewis Brace, another popular executive of the Asiatic Petroleum Co., came down from his desk in Shanghai. Friends were on hand to give him a cordial reception.

Another busy executive from Shanghai was Mr. F. Eden, of the Bayer Pharma Co., who will make a short call in the Colony.

The good-looking number one of Jensen and Co. in Shanghai and also Rickmers Linie, Mr. Peter Rickmers, travelled from Kobe to Hongkong. His visit will be short and he will then probably return to Shanghai.

Mr. O. Osear was welcomed by excited friends. The little lady

MASS AIR RAID OVER KIANGSI

OVER 300 BOMBS DROPPED

KIAN, KIANGSI, Aug. 23. (Central)—Mass bombing attacks were again conducted by Japanese aircraft over open towns in Kiangsi Province yesterday.

Kian, about 125 miles south-west of Nanchang, was raided by six machines, which released over 20 missiles in the outskirts. They were greeted by furious Chinese anti-aircraft gun fire.

Houses Wrecked
Fourteen planes attacked Hoken, on the Chekiang-Kiangsi Railway, in East Kiangsi, shortly afterwards, dumping about 14 bombs. One civilian was reported killed and a number of houses reduced to ruins.

An hour later, Shangiao, north-east of Hoken and on the same railway line, was attacked by 11 aircraft. Some 300 bombs were unloaded there, killing and wounding five civilians.

voyager has been on a round trip in the Scharnhorst to Japan and back.

Europe-Bound

THE m.v. SHARNHORST spent little time in our harbour on Wednesday, arriving late in the afternoon and leaving at 2 a.m. on Thursday.

There was a large passenger list for the Europe bound voyage, though, at an early hour last evening, few travellers were about.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Chang, and their two sons, were receiving many guests aboard last evening. This popular Chinese family are travelling to Singapore, the extent of their visit being indefinite.

The young Mr. A. Pestoni was listed for a trip to Manila. However, we could not discover his presence though his bags reposed in the cabin.

Captain and Mrs. C. Bloem were the centre of a gay farewell party last evening. Bremen will be their destination and they are looking forward to a most pleasant sea voyage on the German motorship. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lim Sioo, accompanied by their attractive daughter and son, are returning to Manila. The whole family have been enjoying a gay and happy vacation and now they return to the south where the head of the family is general manager for a large hardware concern.

Baron von Medem sounded very interesting and we searched for him but without success. Luggage revealed his destination is Genoa, but that is all there is to tell!

As in the past few days many transports departing from Hongkong have been crowded with families travelling south mainly. The m.v. Scharnhorst's passenger list contained many travellers sailing to Manila and Singapore.

m.v. Ruys

WEDNESDAY at 7 a.m. the m.v. Ruys, the de luxe travel transport of the J.C.F. Line was in port from calls in South Africa.

Dr. G. A. C. Hendricks returns to the Colony and commences to think of classes in the Hongkong University. The doctor is in the Biology Department. The holiday from which he returns was great.

The majority of passenger accommodation on the Ruys was held by Army officers of the Portuguese Government and their families. A large group of them passed through the Colony yesterday, disembarking from the motorship and travelling up to Macao, their station.

Lieut. L. M. Corvalho, Lieut. A. P. F. da Costa, Capt. L. H. L. Ferreira, Lieut. and Mrs. C. J. S. Gomes, Lieut. A. J. F. da Silva were a few out of approximately forty of this Army group travelling to Macao.

The U.S. Postmaster General, Col. James Farley, was received in private audience by Pope Pius on Monday at Castelgandolfo where His Holiness resides during the summer months. (T.O.)

BRITAIN'S OBLIGATIONS TO POLAND REMAIN UNAFFECTED BY SOVIET RUSSIA TO PURSUE MORE VIGOROUS POLICY IN THE FAR EAST

That Soviet Russia, freed from the menace in Europe, will likely pursue a more vigorous policy in the Far East is the consensus of opinion expressed by the leading Hongkong Chinese papers in their editorial comments on the proposed German-Soviet Non-Aggression Pact yesterday.

The "Ta Kung Pao" describes the pact, if concluded, as a natural consequence to Germany's desire to lessen the pressure of Britain and France on her efforts to settle the Danzig and Corridor problems, the failure of the democratic nations to speedily conclude a military alliance with Soviet Russia, and the desire of Soviet Russia to obtain security on her European front in order to concentrate her efforts to cope with the threat in the Far East.

Immediate Effects
The immediate effects of the pact, the journal predicts, will be the difficulty in continuing the staff talks in Moscow, threat to Poland's security owing to her loss of Soviet support, the dwindling of the combined strength of Britain and France to equal that of Germany as a result of the loss of Soviet support and the strengthening of the position of the Soviet Union in the Far East.

The "National Times" says that the German-Soviet non-aggression pact indicates the breakdown of the anti-aggression front of Britain and France in eastern Europe.

The paper predicts a more vigorous German attitude in Europe in the near future. Germany, it says, has now surrounded Poland on three sides and can more easily seize Danzig and the Corridor. Should this happen, it is problematic whether Britain and France will actually go to Poland's rescue as previously guaranteed by Britain.

Diplomatic Failure
The "Wah Kiu Yat Po" declares that the proposed pact reflects a great diplomatic failure on the part of Britain and France in their attempt to get Soviet Russia on their side.

The paper forecasts a deadlock in the present Moscow staff talks, and believes that Poland might abandon her policy of depending on Britain and France so as to pacify Germany.

From the standpoint of Soviet Russia, the paper says, the proposed pact with Germany is calculated to administer a blow to Britain's opportunist policy and to destroy the Anti-Comintern Pact in order to frustrate Japan's desire to convert it into a military alliance aimed at Russia.

Different view

Holding a different view, the "Sing Tao Jih Pao" declares that the proposed pact will not be a menace to Poland, Soviet Russia, it says, while concluding a non-aggression pact with Germany, may still proceed with her negotiations with Britain and France for a mutual assistance pact.

The blow suffered by Japan as a result of the pact will be the loss of support and help from Germany in the event of a showdown with Soviet Russia.

TO POLAND GERMANY'S PACT WITH THE SOVIET

Precautionary Measures

LONDON, Aug. 23 (REUTER).—IT WAS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT THE CABINET HAD DECIDED THAT ANY GERMAN-SOVIET NON-AGGRESSION PACT WOULD IN NO WAY AFFECT BRITAIN'S OBLIGATIONS TO POLAND.

Parliament will meet on Thursday when both Houses will pass, through all its stages, the Emergency Powers Defence Bill to place the Government in a position to take any necessary measures without delay should the situation require such steps.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

In the meanwhile, precautionary measures are being taken—for instance, the calling up of certain personnel of the Navy, Army and Air Force and for A.R.P. and Civil Defence.

Arrangements are also being made to deal with exports from this country of essential materials and commodities.

FULL POWER

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—The Emergency Power (Defence) Bill, which Parliament will be asked to pass to-morrow, will in effect give the Government the power to take steps to meet any emergency and, if necessary, they will be empowered to act without consultation of Parliament.

China War:

CHINESE PUSH IN ANHWEI

SHANSI SUCCESS: TOWN RECAPTURED

TUNKI, ANHWEI, August 23 (Central).—A Chinese force is reported to be pushing towards Tiansung, on the south bank of the Yangtze River, in Anhwei.

The Chinese advance followed the defeat of 600 Japanese who launched an attack near Tiansung last Sunday.

Shansi Success

LOYANG, August 23 (Central).—Hotly pursuing the Japanese retreating from Tsincheng, strategic town in a south-east Shansi, the Chinese are reported to be approaching Kaoping, north of Tsincheng.

Meanwhile, following their recapture of Tienhsinkwan and Tsinhsiaopu, near the Honan border, the Chinese are now engaged in a "mopping up" campaign against remnant Japanese units.

Sporadic fighting has been in progress in the vicinity of Chang-tienchen, south of Hsianghsien, and Yieheng, in South Shansi, during the past few days.

A Japanese drive eastward from Yieheng has been repulsed with severe losses. The invaders are now strongly barricaded themselves inside Yieheng.

Some 220 Japanese launching an offensive on the Chinese positions south-east of Fowshan, south-east of Linfen, have also been beaten back.

Chinese Attack

KINHWAI, August 23 (Central).—A daring Chinese raid on Kinshwan, on the north bank of Hangchow Bay in Kiangsu near the Chekiang border, was staged by Chinese units last Sunday night.

Following a severe engagement, they occupied the east gate of the town. The Japanese, suffering heavily, stubbornly held out at the west gate.

Kinshwan, it may be recalled, was where the Japanese effected a landing in 1937, which turned the tide of the Shanghai hostilities in their favour.

Towyn Recaptured

SHUENING, KWANGTUNG, August 23 (Central).—Towyn, a point near Kongmoon, which was lost to the Japanese on August 20, was wrested back by the Chinese the following day.

Some 300 Japanese were killed in the engagement preceding the Chinese recapture of the town. The Japanese carried away several hundred piculs of rice upon their retreat.

The Chinese who re-entered Towyn are reported to be now pressing on Kongmoon.

Mukchow was also lost to the Japanese on August 20. The Chinese withdrew from the town after the total destruction of their defence works.

DEATH OF SIR JOHN ASTBURY

Former Judge Of High Court

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—The death has occurred of the Right Hon. Sir John Meir Astbury, Kt., P.C., M.A., B.C.L., who was born in Manchester on June 14, 1860, and who was Judge of the High Court of Justice from 1913 to 1929.

Sir John was M.P. (L) for Southport Division S. W. Lancs. from 1906 to 1910.

Sir John Astbury was called to the Bar, Middle Temple, in 1884, was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1895 and became a Benchet in 1903.

FAR EASTERN

Concession from the Chinese Government, not from Japan. No change of the status in the Concession can be made without the Chinese Government's consent.

The Chinese Government deposited their money in foreign banks like European Governments deposit theirs in New York banks. British authorities, having understood and accepted the trust, cannot surrender the Chinese Government's money without assuming the obligation to repay China in full of whatever loss is thus incurred.

WHAT RIGHT?

Now we come to the prohibition of the circulation of Chinese Government notes in the British Concession. Britain is not Japan's ally at war with China, neither has Japan declared war on China. What right or justification has Japan to make such a demand on Britain? What legal excuse can Britain offer if she wants to capitulate? But, what Japan aims at is British co-operation with Japan for the time being to destroy China's independence and in the end the extinction of British influence and interests in China as well. She can then squeeze out all Western trade in North China by the manipulation of her own banks.

Therefore, from every point of view, if Britain should succumb to any of those demands, it will mean a portentous change of her fundamental policy towards China.

Yet for various reasons, Britain cannot bring about an abrupt change in her Far Eastern policy. The Tokyo formula for a settlement of the Tientsin dispute marks only the turning point in that direction. However, Britain has so far shown caution in not making any far-reaching commitments to Japan. The reason is not far to seek: the change will give rise to international complications which Britain cannot afford to ignore.

Projected Soviet - German Treaty Not Quite So Catastrophic As It First Appeared

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—With the first shock of surprise over, officials here are inclined to believe that the announcement of the projected Soviet-German Pact is not quite so catastrophic as it first appeared.

The State Department has so far withheld any comment pending a clarification of the announcement.

JAPANESE LEAVING TIENTSIN

FLOOD EFFECTS IN CONCESSION

PEIPING, Aug. 23 (Reuter)

—Though there was much delay, the train services between Tientsin and Peiping were maintained yesterday, two trains arriving hours late crowded with refugees, including 600 Japanese from their concession in Tientsin, which is reported to be worse affected than the other concessions.

Travelers report that the Japanese, are striving to maintain the blockade of the British Concession, sentries being posted at the barriers in rowing or motor boats, as a result of which the blockade has now become a maritime affair.

Well-informed circles, however, enumerate a number of points as possibly constituting a "silver lining."

A HIGH PRICE
Firstly, it is pointed out that the Soviet, which demanded such a high price from Britain, can hardly have surrendered all its bargaining power by giving Germany a free hand in Eastern Europe.

Secondly, continued German aggression throughout the area could scarcely be to the Soviet's interest.

JAPAN EXPOSED
Thirdly, Herr Hitler has certainly paid highly by weakening the anti-Comintern Pact and exposing Japan to a threat of stronger Soviet and Chinese resistance in the Far East.

It is stated that the last point cannot fail to cause some satisfaction here.

It is balanced, however, by the regret that though aggression in the Far East has received a setback, the European Peace front has received a severe blow, particularly the diplomacy of Britain, which it has been President Roosevelt's constant desire in recent months to strengthen.

INTERNATIONAL SITUATION IS SERIOUS

STOCKHOLM, AUG. 23 (REUTER).—BEFORE HE LEFT FOR BRUSSELS TO ATTEND THE OSLO POWERS CONFERENCE, M. SANDLER EMPHASIZED THAT THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION WAS CLEARLY SERIOUS.

M. Sandler indicated that the basis of the Brussels discussions would be of great interest to the participating countries in the maintenance of peace, their wish to make themselves independent of powerful groups in Europe, and the necessity in time of tension to adopt a reserved and moderate attitude.

FRANCE MAY RECALL MISSION IN MOSCOW

Cabinet Council Meeting

PARIS, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—The French Cabinet met yesterday afternoon to consider the international situation. According to several ministers, the Cabinet will decide whether or not to recall the French Military Mission in Moscow.

Following the meeting of the Cabinet, a communique was issued stating that the Cabinet Council had examined the international situation, particularly the reports sent to the Government by the representatives of France abroad.

The Council approved of instructions which are immediately to be despatched to the Ambassadors of France abroad.

M. Daladier, the French Premier, had a long talk with Gen. Gamelin, Chief of the General Staff, after the Cabinet Council. The interview lasted 85 minutes.

FRIDAY'S MEETING

The Foreign Affairs Committee of the Cabinet has been summoned for Friday, when, according to several deputies, the chairman, M. Mistral, will explain the international situation.

It is likely that M. Bonnet, the French Foreign Minister, will also make a statement and thus the members of the Com-

PICKETS ACCOST ALL CHINESE

PEIPING, Aug. 23 (Reuter).

New turns in the anti-British movement are the use of Peking's famous buildings for propaganda. The famous Temple of Heaven grounds are plastered with countless anti-British posters, etc., while the Sino-British Theatre has been closed as a result of picket activities.

BRITISH ANGLE

Pickets accosted all Chinese and suggested that they do not enter, while others upbraided the management for showing Shirley Temple in "The Little Princess."

which is objected to because of its British angle.

Reuters' office was picketed yesterday by pickets who are endeavouring to secure information of the firm's activities from Chinese employees as they left the premises.

Chinese Returning To Country By Circuitous Route: Abnormal Exodus

River boats leaving for Macao are carrying nearly full loads of passengers. A portion of them will probably proceed to Canton.

The exodus from Hongkong has taken on abnormally large proportions, but many of those leaving are but recent arrivals who came in through the New Territories following the Japanese push to the border and are now seeking to return to their homes by a circuitous route.

It may be presumed also that many of the passengers for Canton are on their way back to the country, and take the route via Canton for reasons of economy, finding it perhaps worth risking danger to save expense on the journey.

However, quite a few of those leaving Hongkong are definitely returning to Canton, having decided to lay claim to their homes and property in the city while they have been assured through various "sources" that the "claiming" is yet good.

Bradman's Test Record Lowered: Third Match Against W. Indies Drawn

Though the Third Test Match between England and the West Indies was left drawn, England not only won the rubber—having won the first and drawn two—but also set up two cricket records.

The first of these was when Hutton and Hammond established a third wicket stand which realized 264 runs; the second was when Hammond, in scoring 138, lowered Bradman's record of 21 centuries scored in Test games.

The tourists put up the excellent total of 498 in reply to England's first innings score of 352.

England, however, thanks to Hutton, who was unbeaten with 155, and Hammond, knocked up 366 for 3 wickets and declared, leaving the West Indies no time to bat again.

THE PLAY

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—The weather was threatening and the wicket was damp when the West Indies resumed their innings in the morning before a crowd of 2,000. Sealey (17 not out) and Constantine, who had scored a single overnight, added 45 runs between them when the former was caught by Wright off Nichols. Sealey contributed 24.

Martindale joined Constantine, but the pace was slow and a short life, being bowled by Parks after scoring three runs.

Clarke shared the same fate, also falling a victim to Parks for two runs.

Constantine, now joined by Hutton, had in the meantime brought his individual score to 79 by hard hitting and he was eventually dismissed when he was held by Wood for Parks to claim his fifth wicket. Constantine hit a six and 11 boundaries. Johnson was nine not out and the total 498.

ENGLAND AT WICKETS

Hutton and Keeton opened England's second innings about an hour before lunch and brought the score to 39 when Keeton was bowled by Constantine after he had made 20.

Oldfield and Hutton remained together until the interval when the total was brought to 54 for one. Hutton had scored 23 and Oldfield seven.

The crowd had increased to 5,000 after lunch when Oldfield, after scoring 10, was caught by Sealey off Johnson, the total being 77 for 2.

Walter Hammond became associated with Hutton and the play became quite lively, the runs coming in fast from both batsmen who defied the bowling until the tea interval. Hutton reached his 50 runs in 115 minutes and Hammond took 75 minutes to make 53.

TEA SCORE

The score at the tea interval was 222 for 2, Hutton 97 and Hammond 76, both not out.

Shortly after tea Hutton reached his 100 after batting for 220 minutes, and Hammond followed suit later, scoring 102 in 155 minutes.

This was Hammond's first century in the Test against West Indies. He now beats Don Bradman's total of 21 centuries in Test matches.

The English captain was bowled by Clarke with the total at 341. Hammond's contribution was 138, of which 84 came from boundary hits. His partnership with Hutton realised 264 runs in 180 minutes.

A RECORD

This is a record for the third wicket partnership in any Test, beating the 262 by Hammond and D. R. Jardine against Australia in 1929.

Hutton continued to bat steadily and at close of play he had 105 not out while Denis Compton had 10 not out.

The English score was 366 for three wickets. The match was thus drawn.

MATCH DRAWN

It was announced that England declared, leaving the West Indies no time to bat, thus ending the match a few minutes earlier.

Altogether Hutton had batted for 320 minutes for his 105, hitting 17 fours.

Having won the First Test and drawn the Second and Third, England win the Rubber.

MOTOR SPEED RECORD

ATTEMPT FAILS

SALT LAKE CITY (Utah), Aug. 22 (Reuter).—John Cobb, the British motorist, covered the mile in one direction yesterday at an average speed of 369.23 miles per hour, but his engine stalled during the return journey. Thus the attempt on Capt. Eyston's record of 357 miles per hour failed.

Cobb's run, which was made northwards, beat the northward run made by Capt. Eyston when the latter established the record, namely, 356.44 miles per hour.

Athletes' Funds

"NO LAST MINUTE DRIVE"

The last-minute drive for funds which featured American participation in the 1936 Olympic Games in Germany will not be duplicated next year, it was indicated in New York.

With the 1940 games at Helsinki, Finland, little more than a year off, the American Olympic Committee reported favourable progress on a programme designed to send a full complement of Uncle Sam's stars to the 12th Olympiad.

The chairman of the 23 games committees had nothing but favourable reports. President Avery Brundage, who returned from Europe where he attended the meeting of the International Olympic committee and also made a flying visit to Helsinki, said, "We are fortunate to be further advanced than we never have been a year before the games."

FINANCIAL GOAL

The committee has set as its financial goal $375,000 to send a team of 43 to the winter games next February in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, and 271 athletes and 50 officials to the summer games. To date, $480,434 has been raised, but many committees have not yet reported to the treasurer the funds they have raised. From every committee came glowing reports of plans to raise funds and it was generally agreed that more than $375,000 would be raised.

The ultimate goal is the establishment of a trust fund with the interest over each four-year period being to defray the team's expenses. Looking toward that goal, the committee already has $53,060.38 in trust and, if necessary, can borrow from that sum to help finance next year's participation.

BOXING PLANS

The boxing committee, which hopes to raise $50,000 through 100 to 150 sectional try-outs for the teams, planned to create a trust fund of its own of $100,000. Other committees planned similar steps.

The rowing committee formed a new permanent organization, the Olympic Rowing Association, with membership open to colleges, universities and clubs. The idea is to keep in front of the athletes the goal of representing their country in the Olympics.

GIRL DISCOVERS SHE IS 100-YD. SPRINT CHAMPION

Miss Barbara Burke, the South African Olympic and Empire games runner, has held a world record for four years without knowing it.

At the South African championships in 1935 Miss Burke smashed the national record by covering 100 yards in 11 seconds. Some time afterwards an athletic official, reading a report about the official holder of the record, noticed that the time was inferior to Miss Burke's.

Correspondence between the Northern Transvaal Athletics Association and the South African Association followed, and a few months later the South African Association officially applied to the International Amateur Athletic Federation for recognition of Miss Burke's record.

No official reply has been received from the International body but the acceptance of the record is shown by the latest handbook of the federation which gives Miss Burke as the holder.

Miss Burke also holds jointly the world record for 80 metres hurdles with 11.6 seconds.

STRONG M.C.C. TEAM TO TOUR INDIA

Flight Lieut. Holmes To Captain Side

The Marylebone Cricket Club has invited the following to tour India in the coming winter.

A. J. Holmes (Sussex), Capt. H. T. Bartlett (Sussex), J. M. Brocklebank (Cambridge and M.C.C.), S. C. Griffith (Sussex), R. H. Human (Worcestershire), R. E. S. Wyatt (Warwickshire), Davies E. PROGRESS
IN TIN
RESEARCH

When the International Tin
Research and Development Council was established in 1932, offices were taken in the Strand, London, W.C.2, for the staff concerned in research and development, while an office for the statistics staff was opened at The Hague, Holland. At that time all researches were placed with universities and similar bodies and the Council possessed no laboratory.

Finally, last year, it was decided to bring together, in one building, the laboratory and administrative staffs. A site was chosen in Fraser-road, Greenford, Middlesex, and a building erected to house the offices and laboratories. It is stated, in the Council's report for 1938, that the offices are already occupied.

The report shows that the number of requests for information and assistance, received during the year, was larger than ever before. Many of the inquiries were dealt with in the Council's laboratories, and some of them have opened up new avenues of research.

Corrosion Resistance

Researches on the porosity of tin coatings have been actively continued and this matter has formed the subject of a number of useful publications issued during the year. Attempts have been made to strengthen the corrosion resistance of tin-plate by coating it with a thin, invisible oxide film.
Hot-tinning has been the subject of many inquiries, as also has electro-tinning. In view of the success, under industrial conditions, of the latter method, of depositing coatings of any desired thickness, a booklet of working

PROTECTION
CROPSGENERALISSIMO'S
ORDERS

CHUNGKING, Aug. 22 (Central)
—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to-day wired to Dr. H. H. Kung, President of the Executive Yuan, instructing that special efforts should be made to protect the bumper crops harvested in Szechwan this year.
Generalissimo Chiang expressed satisfaction over the good crops reported over the whole province but pointed out that special attention must be paid to two special conditions arising out of this abundance. First, the price of various grains has shown a downward trend because of the bumper crops, and second, the rising labour cost is forcing many poorer farmers to leave their crops on the field unharvested for lack of assistance.

Troops To Assist

Regarding the second point, Generalissimo Chiang said he has ordered all his troops to assist wherever possible in the harvesting of crops.

As regards the first point, Generalissimo Chiang directed that the Executive Yuan should immediately devise means, in consultation with the Szechwan Provincial Government, to maintain the price of grains at a suitable level. This may be attained by the Four Government Banks and the Farmers' Credit Bureau in mapping out a comprehensive scheme for the purchase of crops.
The Generalissimo concluded by ordering that every financial and other assistance must be extended to the farmers.

Stock Exchange Reflects
Political Situation: Early
Marking Down Of Prices

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—On the London Stock Exchange, after an early marking down owing to the surprise German-Soviet Pact, prices later rallied under the lead of internationals.
The latest political developments have resulted in fair activity on the foreign exchanges, where the main tendency was to offer continental currencies for dollars, thus exercising an indirect pressure on sterling, which was counteracted by the Exchange Equalization Account.

Commodities were quiet apart from wheat and sugar, which advanced on buying engendered by the international situation.
Wall Street was easy and then firmer.

MONEY MARKET

In common with the Stock Exchange, other sections of the city express the opinion that the latest developments in the international situation call for a calm reconsideration.

The traditional calm was, however, not fully shared by certain Continental centres, which was reflected in both the Foreign exchanges and the gold markets.

The recent rather heavy demand for dollars from the Continent was accentuated yesterday morning, but the British Exchange Fund kept a firm grip on the sterling-dollar rate at 4.8812.

The International Archaeological Congress, attended by delegates of 34 nations, was opened in Berlin yesterday by the Reich Minister of Education. The Rector of Berlin
University, Professor Willi Hoppe, welcomed the foreign visitors on whose behalf the Frenchman, Professor Eugene Albertini, and the Italian, Professor Roberto Paribeni, replied. (T.O.)

CHUNGKING, Aug. 22 (Central)
—Despatches from Shanghai state that rice riots in Shanghai, especially in the native city quarters, have assumed serious proportions as no immediate prospect of a substantial drop in the price of this staple food was in sight.

On August 20, no less than 17 riots occurred in various parts of the city.

The Shanghai Municipal Council, in the meantime, are consulting with the Japanese authorities for their assistance in facilitating

Some satisfactory results are said to have been reached.

where C. F. Remedios, a former singles champion of Shanghai, eliminated Dickie Alves on the 27th head by the score of 21-18. Though in the initial stages of the game, Remedios was leading, Alves, by steady play, slowly but surely crept on his opponent.

On the 19th head he had not only levelled up but was actually leading by 15-13. However, he added only three more shots to his score up to the end of the game during which Remedios chalked up the necessary nine to win.

THIS SATURDAY'S MATCHES

Of all the matches down for this Saturday in the First Division, the one between Craigen-gower and the Kowloon Cricket Club should prove the most interesting. Whichever team wins (and I'm afraid to commit myself one way or the other, though if the match were played at Cox Road I would give it to the Kowloon Cricketers) I don't think there will be more than a dozen shots in it.

The two Recreation teams, their 'A' and 'B', will play each other and I have no doubt that their first string will win. The Kowloon Docks and the Police will meet on the former's green, but I don't think the strange green will prevent the latter from taking full points. The Kowloon B.C.C. will entertain and should defeat the Civil Servants.

Second Division
In the Second Division, Hongkong Football Club, the leaders, will be hard put to it to wrest two points from the Kowloon B.C.C. who will be hosts. If the Footballers can win on Saturday (and I think they may just do it), they will be within grasp of the championship. Though even then they will by no means be certain of winning it as they will have another stiff away match against the Kowloon F.C.

I should imagine the Talkoo rinks have a better chance of winning the championship as their two remaining matches are against the Kowloon F.C. at home this Saturday and against the Civil Servants away on the following Saturday, both of which they should win. This means that the Hongkong F.C. will have to win both their remaining matches to win the championship. Of the other two matches in the Second Division, both Craigen-gower and the Civil Service C.C. should win against the Police and Kowloon Tong respectively.

In the Third Division all home teams should win.

PROGRAMME FOR THIS WEEK-END

The following is the programme for this week-end:

EMERGENCY RATIONS:

Nutrition Research Committee's Suggestions

From time to time a certain amount of interruption or dislocation may take place in the food supply of a country and the Nutrition Research Committee have thought it desirable to place certain suggestions before the general public to meet such contingencies.

These proposals are based upon similar recommendations made by the Food (Defence Plans) Department of the Board of Trade in Great Britain.

STORAGE:—

If space is available efforts should be made to purchase and store a quantity of foodstuffs equivalent to, say, four weeks' supplies. Storage space should be clean, dry and cool.

Any foodstuffs not purchased in cans, jars, or airtight containers should be placed in clean, dry tins with tightly fitting lids giving protection from damp, ants, cockroaches, beetles, mice, rats, and the like.

Biscuit tins, petrol, kerosene or oil tins or drums can be sealed with solder or putty and utilised for this purpose.

It is wise to mark such containers with the actual date of purchase of the foodstuffs so that the stock can be used regularly and replaced from time to time when fresh purchases become possible.

Certain articles of food lend themselves to easier storage than do others. For example:—

(a) Carbohydrates:—biscuits, honey, cornflour, flour, jam, oatmeal, rice (unpolished as well as polished), sugar, treacle;

(b) Fats:—butter, dripping, gingelly oil, groundnut oil, lard, olive oil, suet;

(c) Proteins:—bacon, beans (haricot and soya), corned beef, eggs (salted), eggs (in water glass), egg powder, herrings (tinned), lentils, peas, pork (salted), salmon (tinned), sardines (tinned);

(d) Combined foodstuffs containing fats, proteins, carbohydrates in varying proportions—cheese, chocolate, milk (dried, powdered, or tinned);

(e) Fruits and vegetables:—apricots (dried), black currants (tinned), carrots (tinned), onions (dried), prunes, raisins, spinach (tinned), tomatoes (tinned or puree), various vegetables (dried and tinned or salted);

(f) Beverages, condiments, etc.:—baking soda, cocoa, coffee, cream of tartar, curry powder, mustard, pepper, salt, tea, yeast (compressed tablets).

QUANTITATIVE REQUIREMENTS:

The list of foodstuffs given above has been specially selected, not only from the point of view of storage but in order to make it possible for all requirements of a balanced dietary to be met. Mention has already been made of carbohydrates (sugar and starches) and fats needed for producing energy and warmth and to assist in the protection of the body from certain infections, and proteins (beans, cheese, eggs, fish, lentils, meat) for building up and repairing tissues.

Minerals are also of great importance in order to maintain life and health. Calcium (needed for building up bones and teeth and in the regulation of the growth of the body) is to be found in beans, cheese, eggs, milk, oatmeal and leafy vegetables.

Iron (which gives the red colour to the blood) is present in beans, cocoa, corned beef, herrings (sardines), oatmeal, onions, peas and spinach, tomatoes.

Phosphorus (a very important constituent of the bones and teeth), is contained in apricots, beans, beef, herrings, carrots, eggs, milk, peas and rice.

Iodine and certain other minerals are contained in adequate quantity in the foodstuffs mentioned in these notes and so need not be specified separately.

VITAMINS ESSENTIAL:

Vitamins are also essential in a diet capable of maintaining life. Without them an otherwise balanced diet could not be utilised by the body.

Vitamin A is present in butter, carrots, eggs, lentils, milk and peas.

Vitamin B is found in apricots, beans (haricot and soya), carrots, milk, oatmeal, peas, rice (unpolished).

Vitamin C is present in alfalfa, amaranth, banana, cabbage and other green leafy vegetables even when tinned and dried, bottled juice of lemons, oranges, pineapple, pumelo, in such tubers as potatoes, sweet potatoes and yam which can be easily stored, and in tomatoes (puree and tinned).

Vitamin D is found in the body oil of fresh herrings, tinned salmon and in butter and eggs.

Other vitamins are also necessary, but need not call for special mention in these notes.

The important point to remember is that efforts should be made to ensure that the dietary selected contains foodstuffs in each of the various classes outlined above.

QUANTITATIVE REQUIREMENTS:—

A well-balanced diet which will maintain an adult in a satisfactory state of health should contain 3 ounces of protein, the same amount of fat and about 15 ounces of carbohydrate each day. The protein may be derived from both animal sources (eggs, fish, meat) and vegetable sources (haricot and soya beans, nuts, peas, sprouted pulses).

The fats may also be obtained from both animal (butter, milk, fat mutton, etc.) and vegetable (groundnut oil, olive oil) sources of the former being of greater value although rather more expensive. Abundance of mineral salts and vitamins should be ensured by a liberal supply of fruit and vegetables and these will also furnish adequate cellulose content to produce a proper action of the bowels.

Should readers of these notes require any further information on the subject, every effort will be made by the Nutrition Research Committee (Medical Headquarters, Third Floor, G.P.O. Building, Hongkong) to answer any enquiries which should be accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope.

World Lightweight Title Thrown Away

HENRY ARMSTRONG LOSES TO AMBERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (Reuter).—Lou Ambers regained the World Lightweight Championship last night when he outpointed the holder, Henry Armstrong in a fifteen-round bout.

Armstrong threw away his title, losing five rounds by fouls. These were obviously unintentional, but his style made them inevitable.

AMBERS' RECORD

Ambers kept up his record of never losing a return bout, though he was 'troubled' greatly by the negro's savage attack and ripping punches from every angle.

The fight will probably go down to history as a battle between managers—one protesting against the fouls and the other against the penalties.

Ambers landed harder and cleaner, but was often tied up by Armstrong's whirlwind tactics. Armstrong's mouth was bleeding badly at the end.

ATTENDANCE AND RECEIPTS

The attendance numbered 29,083 and the gross receipts were $137,925.

PERKINS WIN

At the Craigen-gower Cricket Club, G. Perkins beat C. Downman 21-17, in the Open Singles Lawn Bowls championship.
